School Repairs During Vacation Ordered by Board

Bids to Be Solicited for Jobs of Considerable Size—Report Shows Students Use High School Library—School Dances Must Close at 11:30 p. m.

An adjourned meeting of the board of education was held at the offices of the board Friday evening at the high school. The board transacted considerable business including the adoption of the school budget for the coming school year, which appears in detail in another column. Trustees Beeres, Betz, Hayes Terry and President Flemming were present.

A communication was received from the Senior Class of the high school asking for use of the high school gym for their Commencement dance on June 22. They asked that the time for dancing be extended until midnight as this was the last dance of the class. The usual time for closing dances has been established as 11 o'clock and the time limit was fixed at 11:30 o'clock some time ago by the board for special occasions. This was done in order that the dances might terminate in time for the participants to get the last trolley car home. The request from the class of 1927 caused some discussion by the members and it was decided to hold to the rule and allow the seniors to dance until the hour of 11:30 o'clock. On motion of Trustee Betz the permission was granted on that term and President Flemming appointed Trustees Betz and Terry as chaperons.

A second communication was received asking for use of the gym. The Alumnae Association asked for its use on June 24 for the annual reunion and dance. As a portion of the evening is devoted to business, the election of officers, etc., the Alumnae requested that they be allowed to dance until midnight. On motion of Trustee Beeres permission was granted with the closing hour fixed at 11:30. Trustees Hayes and Beeres were appointed chaperons.

Trustee Terry for the finance committee offered the payroll amounting to $27,612.33 and bills amounting to $1,822.40.

Motor and Blower Installed.

Trustee Beeres for the building committee offered the bill of Arthur Church amounting to $660 for installing an electric motor and blower at school No. 3 and the committee recommended that the bill be paid, except that 20 per cent of the bill be withheld until such time as a practical demonstration of the outfit might be had. Mr. Beeres stated that the outfit was very satisfactory but had been installed late and no opportunity had been given to test it out under adverse weather conditions. The recommendation was adopted and the bill audited in committee of the whole.

Repairs to Schools.

For the building committee Trustee Beeres offered the following recommendations for repairs during the summer vacation period. The recommendations outlined were approved by the board, and the building committee was authorized to have the repair work done as recommended, the painting of the high school library, corridor and office, however, to be done after bids have been solicited as these jobs were of considerable size.

To the Board of Education:

Your building committee would respectfully report that we made, in company with the superintendent, a careful inspection of some of the school buildings to determine what repairs are needed therein.

We are of opinion that in School No. 1 the electric wiring should be renewed to conform with the present requirements of the Underwriters Building Code, and new fixtures installed.

In School No. 2 we recommend that six new drinking fountains be purchased to replace those worn out and that additional water pipes be run to the second and third floors of the building.

We respectfully report that contracts have been let for the work at School No. 4 in accordance with the resolution passed at the last meeting of the board referring the matter to your building committee with power. These contracts are in conformity with the plans and specifications submitted at the last meeting.

In School No. 3 we recommend that new ceiling and corridor floors be painted and that an outlet for steam from the boiler be placed in room No. 11.

At School No. 7 we recommend that the fence be repaired and that other minor repairs be made.

In School No. 4 we recommend that all outside work be painted two coats, and that four worn out drinking fountains be replaced with new ones.

In School No. 8 we recommend widening the opening between rooms 10 and 11 and that new folding doors be installed in the opening. If this work is done it will make one large assembly room out of the two rooms. The school has felt the need of such a room for many years, both for the regular assembly and for the regular morning assembly. We also recommend that the old walls, ceilings and woodwork of two rooms

Officer Fout Has Resigned

Owing to Ill Health Efficient Policeman Retires From Force—Appointed 28 Years Ago—Given Pension and Presented With Watch Fob and Chain.

Policeman Frederick J. Fout's resignation as a member of the Kingston police department was received with regret Friday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the board of police commissioners at the Municipal Building, and later the trustees of the police pension fund met and voted him a pension of half pay, which amounts to $75 per month.

Officer Fout was appointed a member of the police department on December 7, 1899, and during the more than quarter century that he has served the city as a patrolman he has made a most enviable record as a capable and efficient officer. For the past two years Officer Fout has not enjoyed the best of health and for several months past was unable to work, which fact led him to file his resignation with the police board.

As a slight token of the regard in which he is held by his fellow members of the police department he was presented with a watch chain and fob that had been appropriately engraved. The presentation was made Friday evening by Mayor E. J. Dempsey on behalf of the members of the department.

In accepting Officer Fout's resignation the board commended him for his twenty-eight years of efficient service and expressed regret that owing to ill health he had been forced to offer his resignation, and hoped for his speedy recovery.

There were few officers who were more widely known than Officer Fout, who was thoroughly versed in police affairs and the work of the department. The resignation takes effect the first of July. In the retirement of Officer Fout the city has lost one of its most efficient policemen.

Nigger Chasers Banned in City

Sale of That Form of Fireworks Strictly Forbidden Following Death of Child Last Year Who Swallowed One—Premature Setting Off of Fireworks.

The police department has issued a warning that it is against the law to set off fireworks before the Fourth of July in the city, and unless parents see that their children obey the law trouble is liable to follow.

The fire department is also calling attention to the fireworks ordinance adopted in 1909 which prohibits the sale of firecrackers exceeding three inches in length or one-half inch in diameter.

Last year a child swallowed a nigger chaser, a form of fireworks that is very popular, and since that time the sale of them has been banned in the city by the police department. The nigger chaser is said to contain phosphorus which is a poison. All dealers have been notified of the ban against the sale of nigger chasers.

Fliers and Wives Back in Berlin

Berlin, June 18 (AP).—Accompanied by their wives, Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine, American transatlantic fliers, were back in Berlin today, making preparations for their flights to Vienna and Prague and possible visits to other European cities to which they have been invited.

They arrived by airplane at Tempelhof field last night. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin and Mrs. Levine in a German Aerial League plane piloted by Frauella Thea Basche, the only licensed woman pilot in Germany.

The first day in Germany of Mrs. Chamberlin and Mrs. Levine was a strenuous one. They were met by their husbands at Bremerhaven early yesterday morning aboard the steamer Berlin which brought them from New York, and soon they were in the midst of a "welcoming" program that lasted until they reached their hotel last night.

Builders Decline Bid.

Schinner & Cook, builders of the new Broadway Theatre, Kingston, are declining a general contractors' bid for the addition to the high school at Saugerties. This firm would be placed to receive bids and prices from local subcontractors and building material dealers who may be securing on any of the various lines of work involved in the furnishing of materials. Prices and bids should be mailed to Schinner & Cook, 240 Madison avenue, New York.

Student Bicycle Has Many Marks.

A Ransom Bicycle owned by W. Frank Davis was stolen Friday evening from in front of Mrs. Roberts' 242 Broadway. The bicycle had several distinguishing marks, including a red chain guard, a silver emblem and a red and black striped front fender, which were seen on a number of other bicycles. The police were notified.

Great Interest In Byrd Crew

Women Are Desirous of Making Trip In the America—Unfavorable Weather Causes Further Postponement.

New York, June 18 (AP).—Interest in the projected transatlantic flight of Commander Richard E. Byrd's giant monoplane, America, today shifted to the identity of a possible fourth member of its crew.

Meanwhile, unfavorable weather over the north Atlantic caused postponement of the take off at least until tomorrow night.

Commander Byrd said he has been deluged with applications from persons desirous of making the flight to Paris in the America. Many of these requests, he said have come from women, but "the fourth member if there is one, will be a man," he said.

While Byrd withheld definite announcement as to the probable fourth member, followers of the flight speculated whether a newspaper reporter, to act as official historian, or a passenger would be carried.

Other reports were that Lieutenant Berne Baichen, former Norwegian naval officer, associated with Byrd in his flight to the North Pole, and who has been active in preparing the America for its flight, would be the fourth member. Lieutenant Baichen is an expert mechanic.

The present members of the crew are Bert Acosta, and Lieutenant George O. Noville.

"We are carrying thirteen hundred gallons of gasoline, sufficient to take four to Paris and beyond," Byrd said.

BELIEVE AERIAL CONQUEST OF PACIFIC UNDERWAY

San Francisco, June 18 (AP).—With one aviator and his plane en route to Honolulu by steamship to attempt a round trip flight from Hawaii to the mainland and with added impetus given to the campaign to raise $50,000 for flights between San Francisco and Honolulu, Californians today began to feel that the aerial conquest of the Pacific really was underway.

War department announcements from Washington to the effect that the army air corps might attempt the San Francisco-Honolulu flight late in July, fanned interest.

MAY OPEN QUESTION OF SIZE OF CRUISERS

Geneva, June 18 (AP).—An indication that Great Britain may seek to reopen the question of the size of cruisers was seen by some quarters in a declaration made by W. C. Bridgman, first lord of the admiralty, on his arrival today to attend the three-power naval conference with the United States and Japan.

The declaration of the British delegate was that all questions concerning limitation of warships would be open for discussion at the conference, which opens Monday.

LARGE SEWER CAVE-IN THREATENS BUILDINGS

Evansville, Ind., June 18 (AP).—A cave-in of a sewer that opens into the Ohio river near the Evansville business district became so enlarged today that it threatened several large buildings on the river front.

To avert further collapse of the sewer officials ordered the closing of the southern Indiana gas and power plant that pours a great amount of water into the sewer. This plant supplies Evansville and several southern Indiana cities with power.

CONVENTION OF STATE CIVIL SERVICE ASS'N.

Binghamton, June 18 (AP).—The nineteenth annual convention of the State Civil Service Association opened here today. Among the subjects discussed was a reduction in the 35 year term of service required to secure a pension and further protection for civil service employees from removal due to political changes in administrations.

The session will conclude tonight with a banquet and ball.

New York, June 18 (AP).—The thirteen year old Zircfeld and his wife were a second time in the Hudson river. They will start tomorrow to swim from Albany to New York, one way and a half mile with a swimmer's life. The other will swim across the river. The swimmer will be accompanied by a boat with a motor and a life preserver. The swimmer will be accompanied by a boat with a motor and a life preserver.

Lindbergh Back Home Among His Ardent Admirers

Great Two-day Homecoming Celebration at St. Louis For Intrepid Flyer—Will Participate in Flag Raising Ceremonies For Cardinals.

St. Louis, June 18 (AP).—Back home again among his friends and ardent admirers, the intrepid transatlantic flyer—known to the world as Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, but referred to by his buddy army air mail pilots as "Slim"—today will receive the plaudits of this city in the first round of a two-day homecoming celebration in his honor.

Fresh from his long flight from New York, which was uneventful except for the thrills he gave the thousands who gathered along the route to watch his progress, westward, and the even greater thrills he received at the sight of his old hometown, the noted flyer was up bright and early to participate in the new major functions on the day's program of entertainment.

After breakfast with his mother at the home of Harry H. Knight, one of the backers of the New York to Paris flight, who is host to the flyer during the homecoming celebration, Colonel Lindbergh was to be escorted to the Congress Hotel to receive the city's official welcome from a reception committee of 300, including Dwight D. Davis, secretary of war; Governor Sam A. Baker and Mayor Victor Miller and those who helped promote the transatlantic flight.

Streets Gaily Decorated.

Turning out to witness and take part in the city's tumultuous welcoming, thousands upon thousands of eager admirers were on the gaily decorated streets to catch a fleeting glimpse of the celebrated birdman, who was to head a long parade after the official reception.

Headed by Chief of Police Gerk, who will act as marshal, and a squadron of motorcycle policemen in wedge formation, the parade will start on Union boulevard, on its route through the residential and business sections.

Directly behind the motorcycle squadron will be the machine containing Colonel Lindbergh with Mayor Miller at his side. Immediately behind will be the car in which the flyer's mother, Mrs. Evangeline L. Lindbergh, Mrs. Victor Miller, Mrs. N. A. McMillan and Mrs. Baker will ride.

Secretary of War Davis, Edward H. Rickenbacker, chairman of the reception committee; Harold W. Dixie, president of the Chamber of Commerce and W. Frank Carter, personal friend of Lindbergh, will ride in the third car, while James E. Smith and Thomas N. Dwyer, two of the flight promoters, will follow in another machine. Governor Baker, U. S. Senator Harry B. Hawes and former Mayor Kiel are to trail in a fifth car.

After the parade Colonel Lindbergh and his mother will be taken to the Coronado Hotel where they are to be guests at a private luncheon.

This afternoon the air hero will leave the Coronado Hotel for Sportsman Park, where he is to participate in the flag raising ceremonies for the St. Louis Cardinals. It is doubtful if Lindbergh will remain to witness the game with the New York Giants, as he probably will prefer to return to his hotel to rest up for reception to be given him at the Chase Hotel tonight.

SAYS SON THINKS MORE OF ANOTHER WOMAN THAN WIFE

George E. Decker of Newburgh told Justice H. J. Lynch at Newburgh Thursday that his son, Clifford G. Decker, 23 years old, an auto mechanic, had tired of his wife, Margaret, and is now living with another woman. On the strength of the father's testimony Justice Lynch granted Mrs. Decker an interlocutory decree of divorce. Her husband's parents have made a home for her. The Deckers were married in Newburgh on July 22, 1925. They have no children. The decree carries with it alimony of $15 a week as the wife has to work in a Newburgh factory where she is paid $9 a week.

Dwyer Family Leave For Paris

James J. Dwyer, Mrs. Joan Goldrick, his daughter, and John H. Dwyer, his son, left New York today on the S. S. Olympic of the White Star Line, one of the latest steamships plying between New York and European ports. Their destination will be Paris, where they will be joined by Mrs. Helen Dwyer, who has been attending college there, and the family will be met by a group of European friends.

The party will return to America and to Kingston in August, sailing on the General Line steamer Samaria from Queenstown. The booking for the trip over and back was made by Mr. Dwyer through Jacob Greenwald of Broadway, agent for both the White Star Line and the General Line as well as all other steamship lines.

Error in Recent Advertisement

Through an error, an advertisement of A. Kuntz & Son of No. 15 Broadway appeared on page 6 of Friday's Freeman announcing that a suit of clothes of equal value would be given free to anyone who purchased a suit on Friday and Saturday, June 10 and 11. The date in the advertisement made it apparent that the free suits were intended for the two days last week, at which time Kuntz & Son's sale was most successful.

Coolidge Goes After More Trout

President Goes to Squaw Creek to Angle For Mountain Trout—Newspapermen to Hold Barbecue Near Summer White House.

Rapid City, S. D., June 18 (AP).—President Coolidge put on a ten gallon hat of a size and shape that would make a movie actor or a cowboy justly envious, slipped on a pair of rubber hipboots and went to Squaw Creek early today to angle for mountain trout.

Several hundred small town newspaper editors and publishers came into the Black Hills today to hold an elk and Buffalo barbecue close to the Summer White House and to be received by President and Coolidge.

They comprised the delegates and guests of the National Editorial Association's convention which was held in Omaha and which is making a post convention tour of this section of the country.

A half mile from the state game lodge workmen prepared for the big outdoor event. Large slabs of buffalo meat and quarters of elk, both obtainable within the park, which is President's Coolidge's summer residence, were laid out on roasting irons and from Rapid City came truck loads of huns into which the steaming spicy meat was to be laid.

The three men were arrested in a raid staged by State Troopers on Friday.

They were represented by John M. Cashion and entered plea of not guilty. The cases were adjourned to June 25 at 9 a. m. Bail was fixed at $2,500 in the case of Tony Torillo and at $2,500 in each of the other cases.

School Board Adopts Budget, Tax Rate $9.80

Total Expenses for City Schools Will Be Larger, But Amount to Be Raised by Local Taxation Will Be About $2,000 Less Than Last Year—Tax Rate Also Smaller.

Although the teachers' salaries are mounting each year and for the year of 1927-28 the amount necessary for salaries will be some $9,000 more than during the past season, the amount of money asked by the board of education to be raised by taxation for use in 1927-28 is some $2,000 less than for the year 1926-27. The tax rate will be $9.80 instead of $10 as for the past year. The total amount asked for school purposes as estimated in the budget, adopted Friday evening by the board for 1927-28 is $369,955, of which $215,921.80 must be raised by general city tax levy. The remaining $154,033.20 is revenue received from the state or other sources.

The total amount of money necessary for the operation of the city public schools for 1927-28 is some $5,000 more than in 1926-27, when the total amount needed was $364,920, of which $217,634.07 was raised by general tax levy. Last year was the first year in which the state paid the tuition of county students from outside the city attending high school, and although the total cost was more than in the preceding year, the state money was increased to such an extent that the city tax rate, which was $12 in 1925-26, was reduced to $10 in 1926-27.

The Budget Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Terry, of the finance committee, seconded by Trustee Beeres, the following resolution and attached budget was adopted without change by the board Friday evening at an adjourned session:

Resolved, that in pursuance of the provisions of section 173 of chapter 494 of the laws of 1902, the board of education of the city of Kingston hereby determine that it will be necessary for the common council of the city of Kingston to raise by tax the sum of two hundred fifteen thousand nine hundred twenty-one and 80-100 ($215,921.80) dollars, which sum when added to the money annually apportioned to the schools in the city out of the funds belonging to the state, will, in the judgment of the said board of education, be necessary to support all the schools under its superintendence for the ensuing current year, and for the furtherance of any of the powers vested in it by law.

The Woman of Sixty Should Express Dignity as Well as Chic—Many of the Present Day Models in Both Hats and Gowns Are Possible for Her.

New York.—Recently a letter came to this department from one who frankly described herself as a woman of sixty. She wanted advice in the selection of suitable clothes, and complained that fashion books were not very helpful to "old ladies." Aside from regarding sixty in this dreary light, she is right to a great extent. It is a temptation to create for the young and beautiful, and a joy to read about the divinely tall and divinely fair, even though one may be short and dumpty.

Current fashions are in a great measure kindly to the woman of advanced age. Surplice lines have returned, and with them side draperies and other arrangements kindly to mature figures.

Postlude—Allegretto.....J. E. Street.

Engineer's Triumph
Chat Moss is a moor in Lancashire, England, seven miles west of Manchester, the largest piece of bog land in England. It is widely known as the scene of one of the triumphs of George Stephenson, inventor of the steam locomotive. After all engineers had declared it impossible, he built the Manchester and Liverpool railway across it.

How to British Mace
The reason why members of the British house of commons literally bow to the mace is because parliament at one time assembled in St. Stephen's chapel, London. The members used to bow to the cross on the altar. Here also the mace was kept and when parliament moved to its own quarters members still bowed to the mace as symbolic of the cross.

Agnes and Alphonsine Use Felt in New Ways

Agnes Has Gone Back to Her Semi-Square Crown and Uses It in the First Model at the Upper Left, Which Is of a Shiny Black Straw with Bands of Pink Felt Applied to the Crown, Separated at the Center Back with a Bow of the Felt Set in the Open Space.

Just below is Another Novel Use of Felt, Also From Agnes; This Is a Pink Felt with the Crown Flared Out

So That It Simulates a Brim Which Is Slashed at the Side and the Back Turned Up. The Crown Is Slashed Down the Front and Over to One Side and Then Put Together Edge to Edge to Give the Slot Seam Effect. The Latest Lies in the Trimming, Which Is a Futuristic Flower Cut from the Felt with the Petals Painted in Conventional Design of Black and White.

At the Upper Right Is an Agnes Model Showing the Use of Two-Tone Felt in Pink with Black Facing, the Brim Turned Up at Each Side, and Laid Up Over the Crown. The Large Hat Is a Nile Green Felt from Alphonsine with Creases at the Crown Side and Has White Grosgrain Ribbon Laid in Under the Crown, as a Brim Binding and Through the Center of the Brim. A White Figue Camella Trims the Side.

BRIMS BECOME PROTECTIVE FOR SUMMER AND HATS ARE MADE AMUSING BY THE TRICK OF DUPLICATING THE MATERIAL OF THE SWEATER OR THE DETAIL OF THE BELT

New York.—Even the most ardent exponents of the close-fitting hat weaken a bit in their enthusiasm as the sun's rays become more ardent. Paris has not accorded the capeline, as the French term the large hat, the approval that it has received in our own country, but French women compromise by wearing medium-sized hats and by turning at least some of their hat brims down instead of up.

Paris also advances the cause of straw, a seasonable gesture, and even countenances a judicious use of flowers, including, if you please, those made of glass. Fleurs de crystal are among the novelties that also include an assortment of nails, usually of gold and more decorative than they sound.

It goes without saying that, since it is chic to have one's boutonniere identical with the flower adorning one's hat, crystal boutonnieres are appearing—Chanel launched the crystal flower as a table decoration, but one never knows how far-reaching a fad may become.

For sports wear—and who is not more interested in sports than formal clothes at this season?—it has transpired that matching bands of crocheted or knitted silk or wool are applied to felts and straws so that a more complete union between sweater and hat may be formed.

There is nothing especially new in the idea of beiting a crown—for what else really is banding it?—yet there are ways of emphasizing this detail so that one is struck by the similarity of the band on one's hat and the belt on one's sweater.

Chocolate is almost universally liked, the world over. It is a food in itself and may be served in countless ways. As a sauce for ice cream, it seems to never lose its popularity. Here is one way to prepare it:

Chocolate Sauce.—Cook the following ingredients in a double boiler: One cupful of milk, two egg yolks, one-fourth cupful of sugar, a pinch of salt, one teaspoonful of butter, two ounces of chocolate or one-fourth cupful of cocoa. Cook until the mixture coats the spoon. Serve hot on ice cream.

Cocoa Cream.—Mix one-half cupful of cocoa with one-half cupful of sugar, add two well-beaten egg yolks, then two cupfuls of cream and one-fourth inch stick of cinnamon. Cook until thick in a double boiler. Add two tablespoonsful gelatin which has been softened in two tablespoonsful of cold water, stir until dissolved in the hot mixture. Add one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of vanilla and one cupful of heavy cream beaten thick. Cool the mixture before adding the cream. Pour into a mold, chill and serve.

Chocolate Cake.—Take one cupful of brown sugar, one-fourth cupful of butter, one-fourth cupful of sour milk, one teaspoonful of vanilla, one-half teaspoonful of soda, one egg, and one and one-fourth cupfuls of flour. Beat all well and add just at the last two squares of chocolate dissolved in one-half cupful of hot water. Bake in two layers and put together with orange filling or boiled frosting.

Saved Pup From Shark

A mother collie dog, belonging to a lighthouse keeper on the south coast of Australia, recently exhibited unusual courage in an attempt to save one of its pups. The young dog fell over a cliff into deep water and while the owner was attempting to rescue it with a boathook a shark appeared on the surface of the sea. The other dog, which until then had merely been watching the proceedings, jumped in the water and landed on top of the big fish. As the dog fell heavily with a great splash the shark fled. Both dogs were rescued.

Builders' Error

Lack of foresight by Twelfth-century builders has resulted in cracks in the walls, towers and arches of the cathedral at Marseilles. The builders of 800 years ago apparently did not reckon with the chance that the level of the Rhine would fall.

Early Recollections

With plenty of patience, paper and a pencil, it is possible for you to remember what happened when you were six months old, asserts Dr. E. Pickworth Farrow, English psychologist. In Popular Science Monthly. For periods of one or two hours at a time, he says, write down any and every thought which occurs to you. Repeat the process several times. Then, as memories of recent happenings gradually are "worked off" on paper, you will go back to recollections of your early life.

KINGSTON, N. Y., JUNE 18, 1927.

A healthy young man "made up" to look like a consumptive, pretended to be in urgent need of the air of the far West as he stood pathetically in such places as the lobby of the Woolworth Building, New York, and for two years pocketed not less than $150 a week, sometimes gathering in as much as $100 a day. This is but one of the many wiles of the higher-class beggars of these times. But the individual whose heart is touched by such cunning appeals and surrenders a small sum suffers less and has less need to be on his guard than those who are induced to pay official fees to clever imposters, or housewives who are persuaded to admit strange men on the plea that these have been sent to look over the heater, examine the telephone or inspect the electric fixtures. Cases have been reported of polite burglars who have obtained entrance in this way in broad daylight and disappeared with their loot before exciting the least suspicion.

WHY IS A CAP PISTOL?

The other day, near Lorain, O., a fire destroyed five large tanks of gasoline, severely burned a young man and caused a property loss estimated at $40,000. That no greater damage was done and no human life taken is a fortunate circumstance which does not lessen the gravity of the original danger.

The fire was started by a small boy playing with a cap pistol near a truck that was being filled with gasoline. This revives the query: Why is a cap pistol? Fingers have been badly burned, eyes have been injured and fatal lockjaw has been caused by cap pistols, tragedies that far outweigh any fun or satisfaction a child may derive from that type of toy.

Parents who permit children to have cap pistols are inviting disaster. Communities that allow the sale of cap pistols are making themselves responsible for such fires as the one described, or for any other distressing accident caused by the cap pistol.

SILLY HASTE.

Says Will Rogers, speaking of himself and his fellow-Americans:

We will break our neck to try and save a minute. We will mash a gas accelerator through the bottom of a car to beat a train to the grade crossing, and then when we get on the other side we stop at a hot dog stand and eat and drink for 15 minutes. We knock 12 women and children down to get on a street car ahead of everybody, then get home and stand on the corner and gab to some fellow who is tired of listening to you. We do all these things to try to save time.

Anyone who has ever struggled in a crowd every member of which appears to be trying to get on the car or train or boat first, knows how painful the process is. A few of the strugglers know that if the crowd proceeded in decency and order the loading would be more safely and expeditiously accomplished.

Well used energy, a speed that gets there without lost motion, labor-saving devices that are also time-saving—these things are excellent. It is the speed that saves minutes at the risk of life or limb and at the expense of nervous and mental poise that is just plain foolishness.

THE UNPOETIC POETS.

It is reported by newspapers throughout the country that the Lindbergh flight has been followed by the greatest deluge of "homespun verse" on record. Much as may be said for the good intentions and emotional upheaval of the writers, the verses are pretty terrible. They help to emphasize the fact that even in these days of free verse, the writer of good poetry calls for labor and talent and thorough training.

Most people would expect to take lessons and spend much time in study and practice before they attempted to do anything with such arts as painting, sculpture and music. Yet they will attempt poetry at the slightest provocation and never even know that the results they achieve are far from the real thing. Certainly there is no harm in it. The papers don't have to publish any more of this stuff than will give quiet amusement to readers. Lindbergh doesn't have to read much of it and neither does anybody else who doesn't want to. The people who write it have all the fun and none of the labor or self-criticism of the true poet, and they work off their own great excitement, anyhow.

MORE BRIDGES.

While airplanes span the ocean swiftly, bridges are being built or planned to span more streams and lakes so that motor traffic need not slow down at the water's edge. The first of the month the great international bridge between Buffalo and Fort Erie, Ont., was opened, with more than 25,000 automobiles crossing it the first day. This bridge commemorates a century of peace between the United States and Canada, and facilitates travel between the two countries, thus promoting further centuries of friendship and peace.

There are other time-saving bridges, in use and in prospect. The War Department has recently approved plans for an international bridge between Detroit and Windsor. A bridge joining Philadelphia and Camden was opened a few months ago. A commission in New York state and Vermont is considering the construction of a bridge highway across Lake Champlain.

A YEAR WITHOUT SUMMER.

All through May there appeared to be some basis for the prediction that 1927 was to be another year "without a summer" like that one of 1816 so long remembered by our great-grandfathers, when the grain of New England failed to ripen from lack of solar heat. There may still be ahead of us days cool enough to call to mind the prophecy, but Washington in an uncomfortable temperature of 88 the other day, was naturally surprised to find Herbert Janvrin Browne announcing in The Evening Star: "I am responsible for the first and only forecast that 1927 would witness a return of the adverse conditions of 1816, not only in North America but generally through the Northern Hemisphere, first made before the House Committee on Agriculture, February 6, 1923, in the course of a hearing on the McNary-Haugen bill, at which time I advocated action on the part of the Government to aid in the storage of surplus grains against years of distress instead of dumping our surplus into Europe, to sell at a loss."

If Mr. Browne will only wait a little, he may be disposed to cry for heat relief as well as for farm relief. We have already had a few foretastes of the usual "heated term." Of course 1816 may repeat itself at some future time, but as it has not done so in 111 years it seems reasonably safe to regard such a repetition as a remote possibility rather than a near probability.

ONE METHOD OF PROLONGING LIFE.

I have spoken of a man, seventy years of age, who was the only one of several brothers to live past fifty years of age.

Someone asked him what was the reason that he had outlived his brothers.

"Well," he replied, "you see I always have had a poor appetite."

That was true. His brothers had really been heavy eaters, and had died of heart or kidney conditions in the very prime of life.

A writer in one of our medical journals tells us that dyspepsia is one of the real blessings of mankind, and lengthens the span of the individual's life by many years.

Man was given a stomach that is really two or three times as large as is necessary.

Why? Because primitive man couldn't figure on three meals a day at regular hours, as can man of today. He had to go out and find or hunt his food, and when he ate, he filled his stomach to its full capacity, because he wasn't just sure when he would get his next meal.

The trouble with some folks today is that they think they should eat until they have filled the stomach, and yet they know that just as sure as four or five hours pass, they will be absolutely certain of another meal, and as large a meal as they want.

Nature is so good to them they seem to withstand this overeating fairly well, but if Nature rebels then they have to abstain from large meals, or from certain articles of food. They learn to choose what agrees with them and thus avoid trouble.

This writer points out that the difference between a dyspeptic and his more fortunate (?) brother is just the difference between an acute or sudden poisoning, and one that is chronic or lasts a long time.

The dyspeptic with acute poisoning, and pain, learns not to eat too much and eats only what agrees with him. The individual without dyspepsia doesn't realize that he is poisoning himself because he has no acute pain and so real damage results to blood vessels and kidneys from his overeating.

Remember that at this time in our history there is no need to overload the stomach.

MISSIONARY FIELD DAY

OF THE REFORMED CHURCH

The Reformed Church folk of Northern New Jersey are to gather on the grounds of the old Paramus Church on Saturday afternoon, June 25, for the annual Missionary Field Day.

The gathering last year was so large, in spite of somewhat unfavorable weather, that a record breaking crowd is expected this year. The old Paramus Church is conveniently located on the Franklin turnpike, about a mile north of the intersection of Ridgewood avenue.

The choirs of the Sixth Reformed Church of Paterson and the First Holland Church of Passaic are to sing.

Dr. Edward Dawson of Passaic is to preside. Other speakers are to be Dr. J. Addison Jones of Poughkeepsie, president of General Synod; Dr. James S. Kittell of the Board of Domestic Missions, New York city; the Rev. Henry J. Scudder, just returned from India, and Anton L. Schwab, an elder in the Brighton Heights Church, Staten Island, N. Y.

The afternoon program is to begin at 2 o'clock, daylight saving time. There will be an intermission for supper, after which the program will be continued, closing before sunset.

Explorer's Reward Small

The sum agreed upon that Henry Hudson, the explorer, was to receive in payment for his services, according to the agreement entered into with his employers, was small even for those days—the equivalent of $30 for his personal outfit and for the support of his wife and children—and provided he lost his life the widow (known socially as Mrs. Henry Hudson) was to receive $50 in addition to the sum. Hudson was married and had two children. The agreement provided for Hudson's being further rewarded, at the discretion of the company, if he found the passage which he was seeking.

Smaller Fruit Crop in Prospect

From present indications, the amount of fruit which will be available for harvest this year in New York state will be considerably below last year's crop, according to the State-Federal crop report just issued from the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

It is seldom that we have one heavy fruit crop following another in consecutive years. Last year our crop of apples was very large. This year the reports indicate that those apple trees which more heavily last year bloomed lightly this year and consequently have only a scattering amount of fruit. Of course, it is too early to make anything like an accurate estimate of the size of the crop but the bloom was considerably lighter this year than last, 71.7 per cent compared with 80.5 per cent. The weather was more unfavorable for adequate pollination at blossoming time and the reported condition of the crop is lower than last, 72 compared with 85 per cent. Growers in Western New York are reported as having sprayed less than usual, due to bad weather, high costs and discouragement over the low returns for the past several years. This may be a good year to care for the apple crop.

Three-fifths Normal Crop.

For the United States as a whole the average condition of 57 per cent is the lowest of any June 1st, with the exception of 1921, in the past sixteen years. This relatively low condition figure would indicate a crop of possibly not more than three-fifths as large as last year in the northeastern and north central states. Freezes and droughts have made conditions specially unfavorable in the Atlantic states. The indications are that Virginia and West Virginia may have no more than one-third as many apples as last year. Conditions are spotted in the western states. Idaho has fairly good prospects but Washington with a June 1st condition of 64 per cent has the poorest condition at this date and, with the exception of 1924, the lowest since 1900. Oregon has the lowest condition on record which extends to 1900.

Peach Crop Short.

Apparently a large per cent of the peach buds were injured last December and in consequence the amount of bloom suffered. On June 1, the per cent of full bloom was reported to have been only 42.6 per cent compared with 81 last year and 63 in 1925. The condition of the present crop is reported to be only 53 per cent of normal compared with 85 last year. This figure would indicate a crop of 1,470,000 bushels compared with 2,309,000 last year and 1,820,000 two years ago. The United States peach crop is now estimated at 45,396,000 bushels. Last year a crop of 68,425,000 bushels was harvested.

Fewer Pears.

Although the pear bloom was reported to be somewhat better than a year ago, 86.6 per cent compared with 68 per cent, the present condition is reported to be 70 compared with 77 last year and 82 in 1925. This condition would indicate a crop of about 2,079,000 bushels compared with an estimate of 2,287,000 bushels on June 1st last year. For the whole United States, the condition figure is only 55.9 per cent compared with 75.8 per cent last June and 67.6 the average June 1st condition for the past ten years. This condition figure indicates a prospective United States pear crop of about 18,577,000 bushels compared with a crop of 25,644,000 bushels harvested last year.

Shortage of Cherries.

The present indications are for a crop of sweet cherries considerably smaller than the crop of last year. The bloom was fairly full but the set of fruit is generally light. The crop now appears to be about 20 per cent smaller than it was estimated to be on June 1st last year. The crop of sour cherries likewise appears to be light, being estimated to be about 30 per cent smaller than it was reported to be at this time last year.

Grapes had not bloomed on June 1st, but a much lighter crop than the extremely heavy crop of last year is expected.

RECENT NEWS EVENTS

IN THE WORLD ON WHEELS.

That the price differential between closed and open cars has almost reached the vanishing point may be noticed by a comparison of model prices of almost any well known manufacturer. Closed cars some seven or eight years ago were almost in the luxury class and the production of the industry as a whole averaged 17 per cent closed cars and 83 per cent open cars. The gradual demand on the part of the motoring public for increased comfort meant that closed cars must be made more popular in price. How well this has been accomplished may be noticed by checking up on the factory list prices of such a well known car as the Chandler Metropolitan Sedan, for instance. Even as late as 1922, this popular model listed at $2,195. Today the car has not only been improved mechanically and made much more appealing from a comfort and beauty standpoint, but it has also been sharply reduced in price to $1,395—a net difference and saving to the owner of $800.

A round trip transcontinental automobile record was hung up Tuesday, June 7, when a Chrysler Imperial "80" phaeton driven by its owner, L. B. Miller, arrived in Los Angeles at 9:59 a. m. 167 hours and 55 minutes out of San Francisco—by way of New York. The time for the double transcontinental trip was just one minute less than seven days. Miller started from San Francisco Tuesday, May 31, at 10 a. m. His primary purpose was to establish a record trip American record, but in doing so, he also broke the one-way cross-country automobile record, which he himself had made last August. He arrived in New York Friday, June 3, having driven the 3,285 miles of the Lincoln Highway in 79 hours and 55 minutes. This was three hours and 17 minutes faster than he covered the same route last year. Not content with thus breaking all one-way transcontinental records, Miller waited in New York only one minute, no longer than was needed to have his time card officially stamped on verify his arrival at 8:55 p. m. and his departure at 8:56, and then he was on his way back to the Pacific Coast. On the return trip he took a southerly route by way of the National Old Trail, and over a distance of 3,236 miles he reached Los Angeles in 84 hours 20 minutes. The entire distance covered on this unprecedented trip was 6,721 miles. The elapsed time between the departure from San Francisco and the

Daddy's Evening Fairy Tale

by MARY GRAHAM BONNER

A PIG'S SQUEALING

This story shows how a pig's squealing, by the way, did once do a great deal of good.

Once there lived an old woman all alone with her pig, and she had one great fault. She was very careless about fire and never cared where she threw or laid her matches after she had lit her fire.

She made all manner of fun of the people who thought she was careless. She was on her way to bed and before getting into bed lit a fire in a little stove.

Instead of throwing her match into the fire she threw it in the waste paper basket. The waste paper basket was full of scraps of paper, and slowly the match began to smolder.

The old woman meantime went sound, sound asleep. Now the pig had a basket to sleep in by the old woman's bed.

He smelt the smoke and thought it was a very queer smell.

But as the old woman seemed to be sleeping so quietly he thought he would not disturb her just to find out what the queer burning smell meant.

Suddenly it burst into flames. Then the pig set up the noisiest, most constant squealing you ever heard. The neighbors were all awakened by it, and, seeing what the trouble was, the fire department was called right out.

The old woman was saved, but if it had not been for the pig's squealing, which was so easily heard, she would have burned to death.

After that she was pretty careful where she threw her matches, and she was more devoted to her pet pig than ever before.

He Smelt the Smoke.

A SYMBOL OF PEACE

Just as Lindbergh strengthened peace with France, Chamberlain and Levine are adding to the bonds of peace between America and central Europe. Health Lessons From Lindbergh Preparation for His Achievement Began Before He Was Born, Says Dr. Nicol—Has Sound Mind In a Healthy Body.

The preparation for Lindbergh's remarkable achievement began before he was born, according to Dr. Matthias Nicol, Jr., state commissioner of health, who paid his respects to the colonel in a health talk broadcast Friday night from Station WGY.

Lindbergh's success is attributed by Dr. Nicol to the fact that he was born of "good stock" and raised in a healthy and inspiring environment; that he has led a well regulated life; has good habits; and presumably—since it is required by the air service—has had periodic checking up of his physical condition.

"Like a cooling breeze from the west at the end of a sultry day," said Dr. Nicol, "young Lindbergh burst without warning upon a hurrying, pleasure seeking and careless world in which relative values seemed for the time to have gone topsy-turvy. The people of every civilized nation paused in their work and play, applauded and wondered. Idealism was again restored to the pedestal that seemed so firmly grounded during the great war, while scandal, sensationalism, national and international bickerings were no longer first page 'copy' or of any public interest.

Combines Judgment and Stamina. "Charles Lindbergh's conquest of the air, wonderful as it was, will in the future assume relatively less importance and Lindbergh, the man, more. He could not have done what he did if he had not been what he is: a man with a sound mind in a healthy body, in whom is combined the spirit and daring of youth with the calm judgment and physical stamina of maturity.

"Neither luck nor foolhardiness was responsible for Lindbergh's remarkable success. When, on two occasions, he had to abandon a plane in the air it was his ability to think clearly and quickly and the fact that he had a parachute in good working order that saved him—not luck. When he landed on Long Island on May 12 and later took to the air alone and under apparently uncertain weather conditions, we thought that a skillful but reckless boy was gambling with fate. Now we know that a man, thoughtful and mature, had given full consideration to every minute detail of his undertaking. He had even tested his ability to remain awake for thirty-five hours. He knew that 'two' the Spirit of St. Louis and himself were fit in every particular. When he launched forth from Roosevelt Field on that momentous twentieth day of May he had counted and discounted every risk. He had faith, based upon sound reasoning, that he would arrive safely in Paris. The preparation for Charles Lindbergh's remarkable achievement began before he was born.

Overlooked One Detail. "One detail alone he apparently had overlooked. He had failed to anticipate the crowd awaiting his arrival in Paris and the weeks of tumultuous homage that were to follow. In many men, strong in the face of danger, hero worship has revealed defects. But here again a good heredity, early training, physical and mental stamina and a willingness to accept wise counsel have been in evidence. Calm, thoughtful, unassuming, with no evidence of the exaltation he must feel, apparently nothing he is passing through weeks more trying than were the hours of flight across the Atlantic.

"In some fields of endeavor, as in music and literature, genius may rise to greatness in spite of unbalancedness of body or mind. Genius alone cannot prevail in the new and rapidly growing field of aviation. Soundness of body and alertness of mind are essential to success. Starting with the advantage of being born of 'good stock' and raised in a healthy and inspiring environment, 'Lucky Lindy' has succeeded to a degree possible to few men, chiefly by steady, persistent and intelligent effort, a well regulated life, good habits, plenty of exercise and presumably, since the air service requires it, periodic checking up of physical condition. Few can hope to rise to the same heights of fame, but many can bring health, happiness and successful achievement nearer by emulating the example of the 'man of the hour,' Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh."

Lunch Room Magnate Dies

Chicago, June 18 (AP).—John R. Thompson's belief that he could make a better cup of coffee than the one served him here in World's Fair days started him in the restaurant business that netted him millions as he added to his "one arm" string. It was recalled today by friends of the late capitalist.

Mr. Thompson died yesterday at the Highlands, his Lake Forest estate, after an illness of six years.

Thompson was 28 years old when he came to Chicago from down state with his bride to visit the Columbian Exposition. After they had seen the fair, the pair wandered into a restaurant on South State street. It wasn't a pretentious place they selected, nor was the meal particularly good, but the coffee was bad, very bad.

"I can make a better cup of coffee than that myself," said Thompson, according to the story he used to relate.

"Maybe you want to try it," the proprietor rejoined.

"Maybe I do and I will," said Thompson.

"Buy the place and you can," was the next reply. Before the young visitor went out he had agreed to purchase it all, lock, stock and barrel, and even the mortgage. In that decision was begun a business which last year provided 53,000,000 meals to the patrons in American cities.

be painted and that new returns on radiators in room 9 be installed.

In the high school the following items are recommended:

Room 15—Additional section in bulletin board.

Room 7—Shelves in closet.

Room 11—Shelves under window.

Room 22—Shelves for drawing boards under window.

Room 12—Shelves under window.

Room 28—Closet for books.

Shelf in elocution teacher's room at left of stage and closet or cupboard above that room.

Sink in cafeteria about 15 inches deep.

Electric heater in cafeteria (refractor).

Electric desk light in cafeteria.

Library walls painted.

Corridor walls painted.

Office walls painted.

Desks refinished in several rooms.

Steam pipes leading to room 23 and to girls' toilet upstairs enlarged.

Calc window frames in front, both ends of building and auditorium.

Paint gym windows or change glass.

Shades for back of auditorium.

Increase water supply by installing additional meter.

A surfacing machine would save labor and expense in refinishing desks. A good one can be had for $238. It can also be used for floors.

To Buy Surfacing Machine.

On motion of Trustee Hayes the building committee was authorized to investigate and buy the surfacing machine recommended in the report of the building committee, the cost not to exceed $300.

Mrs. Betz for the supplies committee opened bids for printing as advertised. Two bids were received. The Leader Company bid $255.25 and The Freeman Publishing Company $274.50. The contract was awarded to the Leader Company for $255.25 on motion of Trustee Hayes.

R. H. Van Valkenburgh was re-elected trustee of the Ponckhockte public library for a term of 3 years.

Use of High School Library.

Dr. Michael made a report of students using the high school library during the year as follows:

Sept. 13, 1926-June 10, 1927, students registered.

Sept. 13, 1926-Jan. 14, 1927 15,147

Jan. 27, 1927-June 10, 1927 17,375

Total	32,522
Number of books issued.
From library	4,500
Through teacher, approximately	1,000
Total	5,500

The figures show that the students attending the high school had used the library to considerable advantage. Some 32,000 students had used the library during study periods during the year, principally for reference work. Each student who comes into the library and uses a book is registered on each visit.

Repair Library Books.

Prof. Michael called the attention of the board to the need of work on library books. Many volumes need repair and the shelves need to be arranged. He suggested that the board employ someone to do this work during the summer vacation period when students would not interfere with the work. The board recommended that the superintendent be empowered to employ someone, preferably a librarian, for four weeks during the summer vacation to do this work.

The board then went into executive session.

The figures show that the students attending the high school had used the library to considerable advantage. Some 32,000 students had used the library during study periods during the year, principally for reference work. Each student who comes into the library and uses a book is registered on each visit.

Repair Library Books.

Prof. Michael called the attention of the board to the need of work on library books. Many volumes need repair and the shelves need to be arranged. He suggested that the board employ someone to do this work during the summer vacation period when students would not interfere with the work. The board recommended that the superintendent be empowered to employ someone, preferably a librarian, for four weeks during the summer vacation to do this work.

The board then went into executive session.

TOMORROW

By EVELYN GAGE BROWNE

TOMORROW will hold in her outstretched hand
The fruit of your Yesterday's seeds;
If you've sown your garden with wasted hours—
You'll gather a harvest of weeds.

The seed of Today is Tomorrow's flower;
So work—though you delve in clay;
If you pluck a rose from Tomorrow's hand,
You must sow rose-seed Today!

Look well to your planting then each day,
And live with a purpose true;
Whatever you sow you shall also reap—
TOMORROW DEPENDS ON YOU!

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

MOTHERS AND BABIES

IN THE great war this country lost 34,625 killed in action, 215,480 wounded, and 13,895 who died of wounds. That was a record for 19 months of warfare.

In the same time the record shows that more mothers died from childbirth than there were fighting men killed, and many more babies died than there were soldiers and sailors wounded.

During the war the infantile birth rate went down in the country and the child death rate went up.

During the years that Belgium was being war-wrecked and torn to pieces the birth rate went up and the infant death rate decreased.

The reason for this difference is that this country gave no special attention to the care of infant life, while Belgium established 700 maternity centers where mothers and their little babies are assured the kind of care and attention that give them the highest possible chance in the fight for health and life.

The United States is perhaps of all the world the most intense in its study of ways and means for the saving of minutes and dollars. Every year millions of dollars' worth of equipment is junked because some genius has found a better or a cheaper way of doing the job.

Yet we placidly continue to throw away approximately 300,000 lives a year because nobody seems to be enough interested in the conservation of mothers and their offsprings to better our horrible record of suffering and death.

Every baby is a potential man or woman. Under proper conditions he would grow up to be worth in actual dollars to the community and his family from $20,000 upward.

Is it good sense, or good economy even, to let that baby die just from lack of care?

Would not a dollar invested in his rearing, in making a strong, healthy man of him insure pretty good returns?

Isn't it foolish to let him die by the thousand when he could just as well be saved?

And as for the mothers, if this country owes anything to anybody it owes to the mothers.

Every suffering mother is a disgrace.

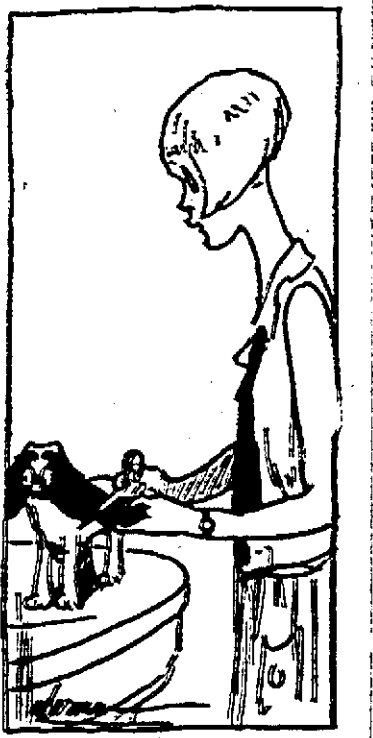

Every mother that needlessly dies in giving birth to a new citizen is a reflection on the charity, decency and citizenship of every other dweller in this country.

Our sense of what is respectable should lead us to provide for the mothers.

Our judgment as to what is profitable, if no better emotion urges us, should lead us to make life and health more certain for the children.

Hello, Mars!

Dr. Alfred H. Goldsmith, chief broadcasting engineer for the Radio Corporation of America, believes that the time is not far distant when communication can be established with Mars. He wants to project, by light or radio, a series of dots, so arranged to convey the idea of regular control, and wait for an answer.

Trading was in fairly heavy volume.
Merger falls were again in the forefront of the advance. Pittsburgh five points, with simultaneous strength being shown by Pittsburgh

Coal and Pittsburgh Terminal Coal.
A brisk inquiry also was present for the issues involved in the revised southwestern merger plan, a tentative draft of which has been prepared. Lehigh Valley failed to maintain its early gain of five points. Acute weakness of White Motors, which broke several points to a new 1927 on some of the other motors, which

Healthy Play Tends to Check Morbidity
A New York physician, commenting on the perhaps unusual number of suicides that have occurred lately among boys and girls of high school and college age, says that his study of the subject has disclosed the fact that not one of the suicides was that of an athlete. His conclusion is that athletics makes for a condition of bodily health and of nervous equilibrium that preserves a boy or girl from the self-examination and worry that are so likely to break down the morale of the mind.
It is probable enough that this is so. The old Romans knew what they were talking about when they prayed for a sound mind in a sound body.
Plenty of lively exercise in the open air, cheerful association with others in the friendly competition of sport, regularly recurring periods when you are taken out of your preoccupation with yourself, your doubts and your problems by the necessity of exercising violently your muscles and your will, all help to keep youth normal and contented. By such means the blood is urged to a healthy circulation, and the clouds and vapors that settle on a solitary and introspective mind are cleared away. We agree with the New York physician that tennis, golf, baseball, track sports, hockey, football are all of them useful ministers to the mind that has any tendency to morbidity. If your son or daughter is genuinely devoted to any of these games you need not have much fear that the idea of self-destruction will ever occur to that son or daughter.
Still more effective, of course, is genuine religious faith. The young people who brood themselves into despair are those who have no conviction of the sacredness of life and no assurance of purpose in this world or of hope for the next. "Happiness" is their only goal, and when they find that life inevitably brings responsibilities, disappointments, griefs and disillusionments, they become panic-stricken and look for the quickest way out. Youth needs the firm support of faith as much as maturity or old age—more, perhaps, since it has not yet worked out its own philosophy of experience. If parents will see that children are encouraged in the healthful exercise of their bodies and grounded in a strong and reasonable conviction of the meaning of life as a preparation for the existence that lies beyond, the newspapers will have no youthful suicides to talk about.—Youth's Companion.

"unusual distinction plus six-cylinder performance and the uncramped comfort of a full-sized body!"

This is the day of the smartly styled automobile. And one glance at the Oakland Landau Sedan reveals how superbly it answers today's demand for cars of arresting appearance and distinction.

$1295

LANDAU SEDAN

Yet the success of this most luxurious Oakland Six is based on something deeper than an extra measure of style and smartness at an extra-attractive price.

True, it reveals the aristocratic beauty of Fisher body design and execution. True, also, its exceptionally complete equipment embraces such unusual items as gasoline gauge on the instrument board; walnut finished window mouldings and inlaid instrument panel; nickel-plated bumpers, lamps and radiator; and foot control for the tilting-beam headlights.

But so many buyers are making it the car of their choice largely because it provides, at lowest price, every element of unusual distinction, plus six-cylinder performance and the uncramped comfort of a full-sized body!

Six-cylinder performance—with all the spirit, dash and smoothness achieved by Oakland's advanced engineering!

Uncramped comfort—possible only with wide, deep seats, properly pitched, properly spaced and inviting relaxation!

And a price of only $1295!

You can spend a day, a week or a month comparing, but you'll never discover a value like this! Come in—and let us prove it.

Oakland Six, $1025 to $1295. The New and Finer Pontiac Six, $775 to $975. All prices at factory. Delivered prices include minimum handling charges. Easy to pay on the liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.
